All things are possible with God

Initially I was asked to provide the crafts for Crafternoon Church. It was impossible for one woman to 'woman' three craft tables and God provided two wonderful crafty women - Fiona and Sarah. Crafternoon Church fits me well as I love a good theme and I am constantly thinking of ideas, ideas, ideas! I had ideas for the first sermon and shared them with the preacher, who turned around and said, "Why don't you do the sermon?" I have done ever since and love it. All three of us crafters have different ideas and strengths, which is a real creative asset! Emma continues to provide fab baking. Refreshments and crafts start at 4:15pm, every third Sunday of the month.

If anything is possible in Afternoon Church, then Crafternoon Church has taken this to a whole new level. I have brought in my turtle for the story of Jonah (that's right

I am sure the Bible mentions a turtle in Jonah), instructed the volunteer Good Samaritan to bandage the volunteer injured Jew using toilet paper and have hidden sheep with all the names of the congregation around the Church for the story of the Lost Sheep. Every month has a theme which is simple and accessible and most importantly Gospel based.

Crafternoon Church gives the opportunity for people to chat and a fantastic sense of community is promoted. Moreover, Crafternoon Church has watered the growth of Afternoon Church. I have been thanked a number of times by adults at the end of the service, which is wonderful - if an adult can appreciate a service which includes crafts for children then indeed 'all things are possible'.

Ruth Thompson-Vear

Why not join Ruth this very afternoon at 4:15 pm for Crafternoon Church?

Sanctuary, St Peter's Youth Group, ESCAPE TONIGHT!

The next session of our new youth group, Sanctuary, is tonight, Sunday 21st October, and is a visit to the Harrogate Escape Rooms! This is not the usual Sanctuary youth night, so booking is essential - please speak to the Revd Chris Clayton (chris.clayton@leeds.anglican.org). The cost is £12.50 per person. Please meet in the Glass Foyer at 5:30 pm and arrange to be collected at 8:00 pm!

Sunday Lunch Club Meets Today!

It is open to everyone and there's no need to book or bring anything – although donations towards the cost will, of course, be very welcome! Lunch today will be served at 1:00 pm. Please speak to Hannah Beck (07503 186455) or Yvonne Dawes (07960 779381) if you need to know more.

Our Parish Newsletter - THE NET

The Advent edition of THE NET is already in production and this time it is focusing on families at St Peter's. The team have been out and about taking photographs and finding out about Sanctuary, our new youth group. Hopefully, there will be details of all the Advent and Christmas activities and services – if you or your group are planning something special you would like the Parish to know about, please let me have the details as soon as possible. Also there will be an invitation to come to the Alpha course starting at St Peter's in January.

St Peter's Christmas Fair – Saturday 24th November

We are holding our Christmas Fair on 24th November and would love more people to be involved. This could be practical help on the evening before, when we set everything up, or running a small stall with things you have made, or a game, on the day. We have several ideas if you need help! Let's make this St Peter's Christmas Fair the best ever!

St Peter's Evening Fellowship – Tiny Churches in England

Churches come in many varieties, from old to new, urban to rural, and big to small. At the next meeting of St Peter's Evening Fellowship, Tony Wilson, a former chairman, will talk about just a few of the tiny churches in England. Holding the Guinness Book of Records title for England's Smallest Church in use, Bremilham Church on a farm in Wiltshire only has room for a single pew or about ten people standing. Please join us at 7:30 pm on 1st November in the Brostoff Hall – I'm sure we'll all fit in!

Here you can play or download the latest sermons from our Family Communion Service to listen to again. So far, Chris Clayton and Dennis Richard are there and the first of the Your Call series given by Sarah Martin last week.
