Mission Possible

UK

Mission Possible UK (MPUK) is a Christian mission society seeking to serve the poor, marginalised and forgotten in Eastern Europe and in the Great Lakes Region of Africa. It was founded in 2007 by Richard Wallis (left), who last visited St Peter's with Rwandan Bishop Nathan Amooti in May 2016. The Bishop spoke of reconciliation and reconstruction in post genocide Rwanda and how, in partnership with MPUK, Star School was started.

Star School now teaches over 900 children in its nursery, primary and secondary departments. Since there is no public school system in Rwanda, families must pay for their child's education, but not all can afford to do so; in response MPUK set up a sponsorship programme for children from poorest families to attend the School. Their most recent project is to build new walkways to link the buildings and new disabled toilets, making the School more accessible to children like Esther (pictured right). She joined the sponsorship programme in February 2019 and was struggling with crutches that were too short for her, but now she is so happy to come to School and have her own wheelchair.

To find out more about MPUK's other projects or to make a donation visit www.mpuk.org.

St Peter's Church Library Good Reads – FINDING HOPE

We are hoping to provide more helpful information about the books on our shelves and to encourage everyone to find encouragement and inspiration in their faith through reading them. As part of this service, we will be recommending books on a chosen theme for short periods throughout the year and displaying them on the Library table for anyone to borrow.

For the next few weeks, we have selected three books for adults that all look at how people have found hope during difficult times:

1. Hope Stories presented by Dr John Sentamu, Archbishop of York (2014)

Encounter individuals whose lives have been transformed and those who brought hope to them in the 20 short inspiring accounts. Very different people in very different circumstances found hope during real adversity. Each short account is prefaced by encouraging words from the Archbishop.

2. When Faith Gets Shaken by Patrick Regan (2015)

As an enthusiastic and energetic leader of an outreach youth ministry in London, Patrick had faced and surmounted many difficult situations with bold faith, but when a serious injury requires long term and life changing treatment, his world comes crashing to a halt. This book relates his journey of re-engaging with the presence and promises of God in the midst of life's sufferings. A thought-provoking and helpful perspective to the questions of 'Where is God?' and 'Why is this happening?'

3. I am not my Father by Paul Scanlon (2007)

A short book of personal stories narrated by eight fathers. Each father offers an account of the journey towards an understanding of positive fatherhood despite the legacy of a father who failed them. The author writes:

'I am trying to reach out to the many men, young and old, in our communities who never had a father or at best, a poor one. It is about empowering the fathers of today to change their children's tomorrow.'

St Peter's Evening Fellowship: New Park and the Barber Line

Until the middle of the 19th century the New Park area of Harrogate was only partly developed. There was a coaching inn, the Little Wonder, named after a racehorse which won The Derby in 1840. But when the gasworks were built in 1847, houses were needed for the workers and eventually a school was built. Terry Williams, a former teacher at that New Park School, will be the speaker at the next meeting of St Peter's Evening Fellowship on Thursday 5th September starting at 7:30 pm. Come and find out more about our local history.

St Peter's Ladies who Lunch

The Ladies who Lunch are meeting again on Wednesday 28th August at the Palm Court Café at the bottom of Montpellier Hill. There they serve a good selection of sandwiches, wraps and toasties, as well as home-made cakes and sweets - they also cater for those avoiding gluten, wheat or dairy. If you are interested in joining us for food and fellowship, then please contact Sue Heapy to book your place at our table (07540 355 305) or brynsusie@hotmail.com.

Sunday Lunch Club Meets Today!

It is open to everyone and there's no need to book or bring anything – although donations towards the cost will, of course, be very welcome! Lunch today will be served at 1:00 pm. Please speak to Hannah Beck (07503 186455) or Yvonne Dawes (07960 779381) if you need to know more.

Help Macmillan Nurses support more people with cancer

Vera Bird and Sue Heapy are organising a Refreshment Day on Saturday 14th September in aid of Macmillan Nurses. They need a lot of people to help: in the kitchen; to clear tables; to take monies. Please, if you are able to help, even for just an hour or two, contact Sue on 07540 355305. Thank you!

Almighty God, who sent your Holy Spirit to be the life and light of your Church: open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit in love and joy and peace;
