WE REALLY SHONE OUR LIGHT!

'The supportive and respectful harmony of St. Peter's Primary School is effective, inclusive, welcoming and impressive.'

These are the words of the inspector at our recent Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools (SIAMS) where we became the first school in the Diocese of Leeds to be judged excellent under a new and rigorous inspection framework.

This inspection came just four weeks after our Ofsted inspection where it was confirmed that the school provides a good, quality education with an outstanding Early Years Unit.

The SIAMS inspection goes deeper into the impact that a church school education has on its pupils and families. Parents said the school was a 'Shining example of a caring and compassionate school'. The report mentions how Governors rigorously measure the impact of the vision statement which is to 'Shine and share your light'. Leaders prioritise good mental health and wellbeing for everyone, with pastoral support readily available for those who need it. Spiritual growth of pupils occurs naturally through a challenging, crafted curriculum to answer life's big questions. Pupils show exceptional behaviour and are taught about good and bad choices, how to disagree well and seek forgiveness. It was reported that staff go above and beyond what would be expected in order to support the children and families in the school community and beyond. We are very proud of what we have achieved and huge congratulations go to all the staff, children, governors and parents who work so hard to achieve the very best they can.

Mrs Julia Collins, Headteacher of St Peter's CE Primary School

One a penny, two a penny, hot cross buns!

Although hot cross buns appear in the supermarkets all year round nowadays and come in many weird and wonderful flavours; the original spiced sweet buns, made with currants or raisins and marked with a cross on the top, were traditionally eaten on Good Friday. Come and enjoy some hot cross buns and Easter crafts this Good Friday at our Family Service starting at 10:00 am.

St Peter's Choir in Holy Week

As well as at the performance of Bach's St Matthew Passion on Wednesday, there will be two further opportunities to hear our wonderful Choir sing this week. On Maundy Thursday at 7:30 pm there is a service of Choral Communion, with the anthems Ubi caritas, written by Maurice Duruflé in 1960, and Love bade me welcome a setting by Vaughan Williams of a George Herbert poem. On the afternoon of Good Friday at 2:00 pm there is an Hour Before the Cross, a service of meditation and music on the crucifixion, which includes such well-known pieces as: O Saviour of the world by John Goss and Ave verum corpus by William Byrd.

The Centurion Remembers – a poem by Barbara Stone

The Jeering

What caused the mob to hate
the one who some called Lord?
Was this arranged by fate
that he be so abhorred?

The Sacrifice

So what had he to gain,
by dying on a cross,
enduring such pain?
Most surely this was loss.

The Claim

He claimed to be The Son,
The Son of the Most High.
Why would this Holy One
choose such a way to die?

The final moments

His followers and I,
were there to see it all;
the darkening of the sky;
we heard his final call:

Father, into Your hands I commit my spirit (Luke 23: 46)

Surely this was a righteous man'
(Luke 23: 47)
