Feeding Hungry People: Belonging

The statement 'feeding hungry people' has been part of St Peter's Church life for nearly three years. It arises out of the observation that Jesus' ministry was, and is, to hungry people. Yes, often they were physically hungry, as many are today, but always they were people who knew that they were incomplete – and that only Jesus could make them whole. Jesus didn't give himself for people who thought they had all the answers; he gave his whole self for those who recognised the depth of their need.

'Feeding hungry people' also echoes the life of the very early Church. The first Christians didn't meet in special buildings they met in homes – where they shared two types of meal: one physical, one spiritual. The first expressed belonging to the local church family; the second (Holy Communion) expressed belonging to a wider, eternal, heavenly family – where, because of what Jesus has done, we are drawn into the intimate company of the Father.

Over the next three Sundays we will be focusing on three types of hunger: for belonging, for purpose, and for God. This week, as we consider hunger for belonging, we might ask ourselves questions such as: Where, and to whom, do I belong? What is it that helps me know that I belong? and What could we do, as a Church, to enable everyone who knows they need it, to find a place of true belonging here?

The Collect for the Fourth Sunday of Easter

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life: raise us, who trust in him, from the death of sin to the life of righteousness, that we may seek those things which are above, where he reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

or

Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father.

A Golden Anniversary

Fifty years ago this month, it became possible for women to become Readers. We must be thankful to those women who campaigned, broke the mould, and stood firm in their calling to become licensed lay ministers in 1969. Pray for the ministry of our Readers at St Peter's: Hannah Beck, Sarah Martin and Dennis Richards.

The banns of marriage are published between Catherine Patricia Waterman and John Blakey. This is for the second time of asking. If any of you know any reason in law why they may not marry each other you are to declare it.

New to St Peter's? Please fill in one of the welcome cards in the pews and hand it to one of the clergy.
