A prayer of reconciliation for Remembrance Sunday

As one family, we reflect today on the horrors of the past that continue to haunt humanity and darken our world.
Lord, where pain still overwhelms,
bring healing.
Where hearts are still breaking,
bring comfort.
Where peoples are still oppressed,
bring liberation.
Where communities are still victimised,
bring justice.
Where children are still brutalised,
bring compassion.
Where lives are still crushed, bring hope.
Where evil is perpetrated, bring repentance.
Where war still devastates, bring peace.
But most of all, wherever a single voice cries out in the darkness, bring us to one another, in the name of the love you bear in your heart for all people, all nations and all creation.

Amen

Persuasion – a poem by Barbara Stone

Tonight I will not brave the snow,
or leave my cosy fireside seat;
reflected in the amber glow,
her tawny fur absorbing heat,
my cat lies purring at my feet.
My terrier thinks otherwise,
and stares at me with doleful eyes;
now, tries a short, deep-throated bark.
We trudge on, under snow-streaked skies,
until we reach the local park.
