St Peter's Youth & Children's Ministry

The Youth and Children's Ministry at St Peter's, like most things in our current situation, is a tale of two halves – before and after COVID-19.

Before COVID there was a growing desire and hunger across the churches in Harrogate to increase our mission to the local youth, which would have been realised by a town-wide youth event. This would have seen the Christian message in all our secondary schools, with follow-up events run by local churches. St Peter's also continued to demonstrate Christ's love through our Sunday Club during the 9:30 am Family Communion; the Afternoon Church services; St Peter's Toddler Group; and our youth group, Sanctuary. There was a real sense of momentum building and excitement about what was coming in 2020. But then COVID happened, and the vast majority of our activities had to stop. While some small projects were able to continue thanks to technology, the momentum had stalled - Summer Camps, town-wide mission and other events had to be cancelled or postponed.

Maybe it is fortuitous that this week is the start of Creationtide, because like a plant that dies so it can spread its seed, small seeds of hope are starting to germinate again after this difficult period. I want to encourage you to celebrate the return of our Afternoon Church Service today at 4:15 pm. Celebrate the return of Sanctuary on the 20th September. Celebrate the return of our Toddler Group hopefully also in September. Let's give thanks that our desire to show Christ's love to our Youth and Children is still there and can only grow stronger.

Harrogate School of Theology and Mission

The logo for Harrogate School of Theology & Mission is a green speech bubble shape. Inside the bubble, the text "harrogate school of theology & mission" is written in white, lowercase letters. "harrogate" and "school of" are on the top line, "theology &" is on the second line, and "mission" is on the third line.

We have been carefully planning the best way to deliver our events during the COVID-19 crisis. We are delighted to offer you the option of attending our first event either in person at the Mowbray Community Church in Westmoreland Street, or online via Zoom. There is a full Risk Assessment in place, which anyone is welcome to see, if they want to check in advance the measures we have put in place for attendance in person. No breakfast or mid-morning refreshments will be served this time. The first seminar will inevitably be a 'trial run' to allow us to check and fine tune the technology. There will therefore be no charge for this particular event. It will, however, be essential for participants to book in advance through Eventbrite. To attend in person at Mowbray Community Church click here; or to attend online please click here. Full details at our website www.hstm.org.uk.

Musical Developments

A great new feature of Matins in these last few weeks has been the introduction of a bespoke 'Organ Reflection' in place of the Te Deum. This adds an extra element of interest to the whole service because John Longstaff, our Director of Music, selects something from one of the readings or the Psalm as the inspiration for his original creation. As the service progresses, therefore, it has been entertaining to try to spot what John is likely to work with this week - as well as inspiring to listen to what he chooses to create. Now, however, it looks as though the rules on the number of singers permitted to lead sung worship are being relaxed - so we are hopeful that a small choir will be able to lead choral services in future weeks. Thank you John, Jude, and all the Music Group and Choir for the ways you have adapted to plan, create and enable musical worship under extraordinarily restrictive circumstances. As lockdown continues to change shape we are most grateful for your commitment and creativity.

BBC Radio 3 returns to live Choral Evensong broadcasts

Live Choral Evensong returned to BBC Radio 3 with a four week residency at London's St Martin-in-the-Fields in August. The first service began with the hymn 'Lord of all hopefulness' sung by the nine singers of St Martin's Voices. This was the final piece of music heard in St Martin's on the night before the church closed due to the pandemic. The following weeks feature an octet from the church of Great St Bartholomew, the BBC Singers and The Gesualdo Six.

All four programmes are still available on BBC Sounds.

Every year St Peter's Church gives at least £3,000 in donations to different charities – half of these are local and half are working overseas. Find out more about these charities, the work that they do and how the lockdown has affected them.

St Andrew's Evangelical Mission, Chosica, near Lima, Peru

St Andrew's Evangelical Mission was set up over 30 years ago by the Revd Brian Attwell and his Peruvian wife, Betty. After witnessing the poverty in the slums of Lima on a visit to Peru, the couple moved there and at first set up a soup kitchen. Eventually they raised enough money to establish an orphanage – the St Andrew's Children's Home in Chosica on the outskirts of Lima. Since Brian's death in 2010, Betty has continued to run the Home, a Day Nursery, Clinic and Dispensary.

According to the latest annual report received in February 2020, before Coronavirus took hold, they are caring for just over thirty abandoned, orphaned, and disabled children. They continue to run a Day Nursery, where single mothers can bring their babies and toddlers in the early morning, and then go off to work on the many market stalls in the town, returning in the evening to collect their children. A doctor visits the Clinic each week and treats any local sick children and mothers free of charge. Construction work on the final school classroom built in memory of Brian Attwell is now complete. It is hoped to open a primary school in the new building as soon as funds allow.

Peru imposed one of the earliest and strictest lockdowns in Latin America to stop the spread of Coronavirus - but has still seen cases rise rapidly. The country has one of the world's highest excess death rates, which suggests the official figures are an underestimate. Peru's healthcare system was underprepared for a pandemic, with poorer areas having few to no medical resources. About 70% of the employed population work in the informal sector, so have no choice but to use crowded public transport to get to work despite the lockdown. Many people have lost their jobs in the cities and have had to move back into rural areas taking the virus with them.

The Collect for the Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity

Almighty God, who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself:

help us to proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may be drawn to you; through him who was lifted up on the cross, and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Almighty God, you search us and know us:
may we rely on you in strength and rest on you in weakness, now and in all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
