Supporting seafarers affected by the war in Ukraine

The Mission to Seafarers, a mission society of the Anglican Communion, is open night and day, 365 days a year. They work in 200 ports across 50 countries, caring for seafarers of all ranks, nationalities and beliefs.

After two years of dealing with the pandemic and its overwhelming impact on seafarers and their families, there were hopeful signs – then the Ukraine war hit.

With 15% of the maritime workforce being either Ukrainian or Russian, once again shipping – and the people at its heart – have been very badly impacted. Ukrainian crew face acute anxiety about family back home. There has been immense difficulty for Ukrainian seafarers wishing to return, or even just to get money back home. Russian seafarers have also been very badly hit by a conflict not of their making. More widely, there are also seafarers of other nationalities who have found themselves trapped in Ukrainian ports and some vessels have come under Russian missile attack.

In response, the Mission have been offering vital pastoral support, as well as providing access to free communication at a time when connecting with families is even more vital than usual. They have produced additional 'own language' Russian and Ukrainian resources and set aside a substantial fund to support individual families in Ukraine.

Whether stranded at home or on a ship, whether in need of practical support or simply a listening ear, the Mission is there for those who are caught up in the conflict.

If you wish to make a donation on this Sea Sunday please use one of the envelopes available in Church or visit www.justgiving.com/themissiontoseafarers. Thank you!

Come to The Cake Matters Café on Thursday

The Cake Matters Café is now on the second Thursday of each month. The next one is this week on Thursday 14th July at 11:30 am after the Holy Communion service. They will be serving hot drinks, soup, sandwiches and, of course, cake!

Men's Breakfast at St Peter's: Saturday 16th July 2022

Beginning with Morning Prayers at 8:00 am for those who wish to take part, and breakfast from 8:30 to 9:00 am, followed by an informal discussion session in The Gallery for perhaps 30 minutes or so. Please text Bryn Heapy on 07561 889076 if you are planning to come or email him at brynsusie@hotmail.com.

St Peter's Ladies who Lunch

The Ladies who Lunch are meeting again on Friday 22nd July at the Palm Court Café at the bottom of Montpellier Hill. There they serve a good selection of sandwiches, wraps and toasties, as well as home-made cakes and sweets - they also cater for those avoiding gluten, wheat or dairy. If you are interested in joining us for food and fellowship, then please call or text Sue Heapy (07540 355 305) or send her an email brynsusie@hotmail.com before Sunday 17th so she can book a table for us.

St Swithun's Day if Thou Dost Rain...

On Friday it is 15th July – St Swithun's Day. Legend has it that if it rains on St Swithun's Day then the wet weather will continue for 40 days:

*St. Swithun's day if thou dost rain,
For forty days it will remain,
St. Swithun's day if thou be fair,
For forty days 'twill rain nae mair.*

St Swithun was the Bishop of Winchester in Saxon times. His dying wish was that he be buried in a simple grave outside by the door of the Saxon Minster and here he rested for over a hundred years; but in 971 the monks of Winchester decided to move his body to a more opulent shrine inside the Cathedral. The ceremony, on 15th July, was ruined by a huge downpour and so the legend started. His tomb became a major site for pilgrims hoping to be healed until the Reformation when it was destroyed. Let's hope Friday stays dry and fair!

Nothing remains of St Swithun's shrine in Winchester Cathedral today, but this modern memorial now marks the spot.

Come for lunch next Sunday

The Sunday Lunch Club meets again next Sunday 17th July. It is open to all adults and there's no need to book or bring anything – although any donations towards the cost will be gratefully received! Lunch will be served at 1:00 pm. Please speak to Hannah Beck (07503 186455) or Yvonne Dawes (07960 779381) if you would like to know more.

Sanctuary end-of-year BBQ tonight

As the school holidays are almost here Sanctuary, our Youth group, will be holding their last get-together of the year tonight. Their End of the Year BBQ will be at Stewart and Catharine Davies's house from 5:30 – 7:00pm. If you would like to join in just speak to our Associate Vicar, Chris Clayton (07407 258733 or chris.clayton@leeds.anglican.org).

The English Cathedral photography exhibition

In 2008 Peter Marlow was commissioned by Royal Mail to photograph six cathedrals; the images were to be used on commemorative stamps. Peter was inspired to continue this pilgrimage and capture the 42 cathedrals of the Church of England using only natural light, which are now on show at Ripon Cathedral. The exhibition is free and runs from 27th May – 27th July, with accompanying literature, prints and postcards available from the Cathedral Shop.

Kittens available!

In about a weeks' time, six kittens will be available for re-homing.
Farm kittens, very friendly and they will be checked, chipped and vaccinated.

The Collect for The Fourth Sunday after Trinity

(Common Worship)

Gracious Father, by the obedience of Jesus you brought salvation to our wayward world: draw us into harmony with your will, that we may find all things restored in him, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

The Collect for The Fourth Sunday after Trinity (Book of Common Prayer)

O God, the protector of all that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us thy mercy; that, thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal: Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake our Lord.

Project Phoenix: taking the Choir to new heights

Ripon Cathedral has launched a major recruitment campaign to sign-up new boys and girls for its choir, building on 1350 years of musical heritage. The aptly named Project Phoenix aims to take the choir to new heights, inspiring a new generation of choristers and breathing new life into the Cathedral's choral tradition. They have chorister places for boys (aged 7 – 11) and girls (aged 7 – 14) available for September 2022. If your son or daughter loves singing, then do get in touch with the Director of Music, Dr Ronny Krippner, by emailing him at singing@riponcathedral.org.uk.

Ordinations across the Diocese at Petertide

New priests were ordained at services across the Diocese on Saturday 25th June. In our area Jennifer Bradley (Kairos Harrogate); Michelle Lepine (Holy Trinity Ripon); Linzi Blundell (Swaledale with Arkengarthdale); Nicolas Murray (Pannal with Beckwithshaw); and Claire Honess (Barnoldswick and Bracewell) are seen here with the Bishop of Ripon. On Saturday 2nd July twenty-three deacons were ordained at Wakefield Cathedral to serve as curates in churches in all five areas of the Diocese. Please pray for them all as they start their new ordained ministries.

Seafarers risk storms, shipwreck, isolation and injury to transport more than 90% of the goods we use, the clothes we wear and the food we eat.

I'm saying 'Thank you' to seafarers this Sea Sunday.

Refreshments are served after each of our Sunday morning services from the kitchen area at the front of Church. Please come and join us.
