POPPY  APPEAL

This Remembrance Sunday, could you save someone like Former Captain Laurence 'Loz' Moore?

While serving on tour in Afghanistan, Loz's vehicle was hit by improvised explosive devices, injuring him and his platoon. He left the Army diagnosed with PTSD due to his experience and felt like he'd lost everything. His income, his sense of purpose, and even his family.

How your donations help

Donations meant the Royal British Legion were there to offer help when Loz needed it most. Loz attended a course at the Battle Back Centre where we're dedicated to making sure that everyone who has undergone life-changing experiences in military service receives the support and help they need. Thanks to our expert coaches, he regained his confidence, his mental health and his family.

Our vital work can only continue with your help

Loz isn't the only one. There are still so many people out there who need help. For some, the physical and mental toll of confronting huge challenges like health issues, debt, homelessness and unemployment alone can be overwhelming. The Royal British Legion is their lifeline. Please support our Armed Forces community by donating to the Poppy Appeal today. You could help to save someone like Loz.

To make a donation please visit www.britishlegion.org.uk; or phone 0345 845 1945.

St Peter's Christmas Appeal 2024

Would you like to be involved in helping a family or elderly person this Christmas? If so, you can take part in our Christmas Appeal which this year will support around twenty-eight vulnerable local families identified by North Yorkshire Council; thirty elderly individuals living in residential care or at home; and a number of families known to St Peter's Church.

After the services on Sunday 17th November Carole Raw will be giving out cards created especially for each family or elderly person. On the reverse of the card is a list of items to buy and pack into the Christmas bag, which will be provided. The bags should be returned to Church on either Monday 25th November from 9:00 am – 5:00 pm or Tuesday 26th from 9:00 am – 2:30pm. For more information, please contact Carole on 07425 161 425 or email stpeterschurchhgtooffice@gmail.com. Thank you for your support!

Jars needed for the Christmas Fair

Please start collecting jars for our Jarbola stall at the Christmas Fair on 30th November. Jarbola is run like a Tombola, but all the prizes are jars. They need to be new, unopened jars of jam, pickles, condiments, cosmetics anything that comes in a jar! No empty jars please. We would be grateful if you could keep them at home until the Sunday before the Fair (24th November) due to a lack of storage space in Church. Thank you.

O Lord, we beseech thee, absolve thy people from their offences; that through thy bountiful goodness we may all be delivered from the bands of those sins, which by our frailty we have committed: Grant this, O heavenly Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our blessed Lord and Saviour.

Harrogate School of Theology & Mission

Alan Garrow, Vicar of St Peter's Harrogate speaks on 'The Didache Discoveries: Two Missing Books of the Bible'

In 1873 Archbishop Philotheos Bryennios discovered the only surviving copy of a text called 'The Didache' or 'The Teaching of the Lord, by the Twelve Apostles, to the Gentiles'. This book nearly achieved inclusion in the New Testament canon. After it was placed in the 'second rank', it disappeared for well over a thousand years. Since its rediscovery it has baffled scholars. No one has been able to work out who wrote it, when, where or why. In this lecture Alan Garrow presents a new solution to the puzzle.

This live lecture is at St Mark's Church on Saturday 23rd November, starting with a breakfast served from 9:30 am, then the lecture from 10:00 am – 12:00 pm. Tickets cost £8 (students £5 and under 18s free) including breakfast and refreshments. The lectures are also available on Zoom, but you'll have to make your own breakfast! Fees are payable on the day or preferably in advance at Eventbrite.
