What happens at the Healing Service?

A quiet, and easily overlooked, feature of St Peter's weekly worship is the Healing Service which takes place at 12 noon on Tuesdays. Perhaps you've seen this on the calendar and wondered what's involved?

The service takes place on the red dais around the nave altar. That immediately tells you that it is a small, intimate service attended by a small number of people – perhaps eight in total. We use two different forms of liturgy, one with and one without Holy Communion.

The atmosphere of this service is still and reflective. Some people come every week; others are passers-by who come in off the street. It is a time when it's possible to mention what you'd like prayer for, or not – whichever you prefer. It's also an opportunity to bring others to God in prayer.

As part of the service the leader places his or her hand on each person's shoulder and prays:

In the name of God, and trusting in his might alone, receive Christ's healing touch to make you whole.

May Christ give you wholeness of body, mind and spirit, deliver you from every evil, and fill you with his peace. Amen

If you need a place where you can be quiet with others before God, or if you have something in particular for which you'd appreciate prayer, then do feel welcome to join us at the Healing Service.

Alan Garrow, Vicar at St Peter's Church

St Peter's Ladies who Lunch

The Ladies who Lunch are meeting again on Wednesday 27th October at the Palm Court Café at the bottom of Montpellier Hill. There they serve a good selection of sandwiches, wraps and toasties, as well as home-made cakes and sweets - they also cater for those avoiding gluten, wheat or dairy. If you are interested in joining us for food and fellowship, then please contact Sue Heapy (07540 355 305 or brynsusie@hotmail.com) before 24th October so she can book our table.

Could you knit poppies for our Remembrance Sunday display?

Last year we were unable to hold services on Remembrance Sunday as St Peter's Church was closed by the COVID-19 lockdown, so this poignant display in the Glass Foyer was created. This year we are aiming for 500 poppies for our window display, to improve on last year's amazing effort. Please check out this link if you need a pattern, all poppies are gratefully received no matter what they might look like - please leave them on the Welcomers' Desk or give them to our Churchwarden, Sarah Martin, (0791 325 9490).
