We are one body

What will St Peter's look like at this time next year? As the last sixteen months has taught us there are no guarantees and nothing we can take for granted. Just because something happened in the past does not mean that it will happen again in the future. At one level this is positive. We can reflect on what we really value and take time to discern how God is calling us into a new future.

A truth that necessarily persists, however, is that whatever we are called to next will require the concerted working of the whole body. So, more than ever, what you offer matters. This is true even at the level of how we relate to one another, since there is scope for tension as we try to work out how to navigate the next stage of the pandemic. This is also true in terms of how we contribute our time, talents and treasure. It is easy to imagine that what we can offer is too small or too limited to be of any consequence. This is never true. Each of us has a unique calling, a place in the whole body that only we can fully occupy.

Please prayerfully consider what your part might be and, if you feel unsure, come and chat further with me or Chris Clayton. God is calling us, as one body, into something new.

Alan Garrow, Vicar of St Peter's Church

As the Covid restrictions lift

Monday 19th July marked an end to laws governing our behaviour around Covid. At the same time, however, infection rates continue to rise. Against this background, these are the (relatively minor) changes we plan to adopt for the next few weeks:

- 1. No booking required - if change 2 (below) does not allow us to give one another space, then booking may need to be reintroduced.
- 2. Please don't sit directly behind someone else - from now on it will be possible to sit in any pew. However, please avoid sitting directly behind someone in the pew in front.
- 3. Please wear a face covering when moving around the building - we are all going to need to use our judgement about when to wear a mask. It seems sensible to suggest that we cover our faces when we are moving around the building.
- 4. Please wear a face covering when singing - It is great that we are now all allowed to sing again, but (especially when the Church is relatively full) it seems sensible to suggest that we cover our faces when singing.
- 5. Stay for coffee after the service - the logistics of this are not quite worked out, but we hope to have a system whereby it's possible to stay for coffee while still giving one another space.

I hope these plans strike an appropriate balance between bringing back valued aspects of worship while also doing our best to take care of one another. If there is something further we could do to make it possible for you to re-join us for worship, then do please let me know.

The last Trying Times cartoon!

For the past eighteen months or so Jim Godfrey, a Verger at Christ Church Cathedral in Oxford, has been drawing the Trying Times cartoons. Although they were mainly for the pewsheet at his own church, he has been very kindly sending them to me to publish in The Weekly News each week. I know many of you enjoy his gentle humour and will miss seeing the cartoons on Sundays. Thank you, Jim, for sharing your work with us and putting a smile on our faces during this difficult time.

Last chance to book

We are meeting this week at 12:15 pm on Wednesday 28th July at the Palm Court Café at the bottom of Montpellier Hill. If you would like to join us for food and fellowship, then please contact Sue Heapy TODAY, Sunday 25th July, (07540 355 305 or brynsusie@hotmail.com) as she has to book our table in advance – the 'rule of six' will no longer apply so we should be able to all sit together!

The end of the year Sanctuary BBQ last Sunday

Sanctuary, St Peter's Youth Group, held their end of year BBQ in glorious sunshine in Catharine and Stewart Davies's gorgeous garden. Chris Clayton (understated in the hat and Hawaiian shirt) wanted to thank all the youth members and also the leaders – David and Jill Hipkin, Carrie Brown, Sam Clayton and Megan Hattersley – for all their help and support after such a difficult year!

The Collect for the Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

or

Lord God, your Son left the riches of heaven and became poor for our sake: when we prosper save us from pride, when we are needy save us from despair, that we may trust in you alone; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
