Serving differently able people at home and abroad

Did you know that Artizan International serves differently-able people both on your doorstep and on the other side of the world – in Ecuador and Peru! Have you noticed the art installation in the narthex, part of 'The World Through Our Eyes' art project made of paper-mâché and mosaiced sea creatures? These have been lovingly made by the young adults with special needs who come to the weekly therapeutic crafts workshops that we hold at our Artizan Café, just a few doors along from St Peter's.

Meanwhile in Ecuador and Peru, we're using crafts-based social enterprise as a way of not only reducing social isolation, but also lifting people with disabilities out of extreme poverty. Some of you will have met Carlos (seen below) and Jessica, our Ecuadorian project leaders, when they visited the UK recently to receive training in new techniques and products, which they're now passing on to the twenty-one disabled artisans whom Artizan supports there. Carlos and Jessi's enthusiasm is contagious, and everyone has taken to the new skills quickly with great delight, already producing beautiful new items which will shortly be for sale in our Artizan shop on Oxford Street. Purchasing their work directly helps to support them and their families.

In just three weeks' time, I will be taking a team of volunteers to Artizan's centre in Arequipa, Peru, which comprises crafts training workshops, a shop and a café. The café is waiting to be furnished and equipped, which is what we'll be working on. It will provide vitally needed training and employment opportunities for young deaf people once it's completed. There are still many things needed to complete this project, so if you'd like to find out more about how you can help, do have a look at our website www.artizaninternational.org/peru. Thanks so much for your support, we couldn't serve all the many people that we do, without you.

Susie Hart MBE,

Overseas Director & CEO Artizan International

Girl Guides are raising funds to complete their Birk Crag Centre

Girlguiding North Yorkshire West knocked down their old building at Birk Crag in Harrogate and began building a new one in 2019. The new building aims to provide not only a meeting space but a shop, office space, storage for equipment as well a place to hold sleepovers, holidays and residential training. However, the pandemic had a huge impact on the project, delaying building and pushing up costs. In order to raise more money, girlguides all over the county have been fundraising to get the new building at Birk Crag finished.

Our own 10th Harrogate (St Peter's) Rainbows, Guides and Brownies are holding a Refreshment Day on Saturday 1st July to help raise additional funds – please support them by offering to bake a cake (speak to Kate Blake kateblakefamily@gmail.com or 07931 382 756) or come for hot drinks and cake or a light lunch on the day.

St Peter's Evening Fellowship visiting the Royal Hall

The next Evening Fellowship meeting will take place on Thursday 6th July, and this will be a tour of the Royal Hall led by Helen Camm. The tour will start at 11:00 am and we will meet in the foyer of the Royal Hall at 10:45 am. It is expected that the tour will last for an hour or so. Please note that there is a lift at the Royal Hall for those of you who may need it. You are most welcome to join us, current member or not. For further details contact our Secretary, Richard Bion (07966 073 867 or richardbion9@gmail.com).

Ordinations taking place at Bradford Cathedral on Saturday

Ordinands across the Diocese are getting ready to begin their ministry this Summer. They have successfully completed their courses at theology college and will now be ordained a Deacon by the Bishop – then they may be called The Reverend, can wear a clerical collar and will start their Curacy in a parish. For the first year of their Curacy they remain a Deacon and can preside at certain services, but not Holy Communion. A year later, if all goes well, they are ordained Priest and can then carry out the full range of clergy duties.

Eighteen new Deacons will be ordained at two services at Bradford Cathedral this Saturday 1st July before starting Curacies in parishes all over our region. These include Karin Shaw and Steve Gibbin, who will become Curates at St Peter's. Please pray for them as they embark on this new stage in their discipleship of Christ.

Ripon Cathedral Summer Organ Festival 2023

The last recital of four in this year's Summer Organ Festival is given by Tim Harper, Assistant Director of Music at Ripon Cathedral since 2014. Alongside his cathedral duties, he enjoys recital, accompanying and continuo work; he is also accompanist to Ripon Choral Society and the early music course NORVIS. Tim will be playing pieces by Holst, Buxtehude and Harris on Tuesday 27th June at 7:30 pm in the Nave of the Cathedral. Tickets are £10 from Ripon Cathedral Gift Shop; tickets from Eventbrite carry a booking fee.
