Walking together through Holy Week

Each day of Holy Week there are three, four or even five opportunities to join with others as we journey together following Jesus towards the Cross.

As well as Morning and Evening Prayer each day, and Holy Communion at 11:00 am on Thursday, there will also be: Compline at 9:00 pm on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday; a broadcast of the 2019 recording of the St Matthew Passion at 7:15 pm on Wednesday; Choral Communion at 7:30 pm on Maundy Thursday; a Family Service at 10:00 am and at 2:00 pm An Hour before the Cross, both on Good Friday.

Details of these services and how to book (where necessary) are available inside this newsletter, on the website and on the back of the St Peter's Easter Card.

There is something particularly worthwhile about engaging with Jesus' journey to the Cross every day in Holy Week – whether with others or alone. It makes Easter all the more meaningful and joyful when it comes.

Alan Garrow, Vicar of St Peter's Church

In Memoriam lilies for Easter Day

At St Peter's we have a tradition of placing Easter lilies at the foot of the High Altar, in memory of loved ones. If you wish to have someone commemorated in this way, please put that person's name along with any donation (cash only, please) in an envelope marked Sue Heapy in the clear Donations box by St Mary's Chapel before 28th March. Sue will be at Church on Sunday (28th March) if you prefer to give your donation and details to her in person.

Make a Palm Cross for Palm Sunday

Palm Sunday is the last Sunday before Easter and signifies the start of Holy Week in the church calendar. The story of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem is told in Matthew 21 v 1 - 11. As Jesus rode a donkey into the city, a large crowd gathered and spread palm branches and their cloaks on the road. The hundreds of people shouted, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest heaven!"

Many churches celebrate Palm Sunday with the waving of palm branches, singing traditional hymns, and making crosses out of palm leaves. The palm crosses are blessed and taken home by the members of the congregation and some of the crosses may be burned the following year to use as the ashes for Ash Wednesday.

If you cannot come to Church today or during Holy Week, the Church of England have produced some resources and activities for celebrating at home, including a downloadable guide and instructions for making your own palm cross – to find out more visit <https://www.churchofengland.org/resources/coronavirus-covid-19-guidance/passiontide-holy-week-and-easter-2021>.

Trying Times, one year on

Jim Godfrey, one of the Cathedral Vergers at Christ Church in Oxford, has kept spirits up at the Methodist Church where he worships by drawing cartoons for their newsletter. During the first lockdown I saw an article in the Church Times about Jim's cartoons and emailed him to ask permission to use one in our Weekly News. Not only did he kindly agree, but he also generously offered to send me a new cartoon each week. Here is this week's offering – cartoon no.52! Thank you, Jim, for sharing your cartoons with us during this difficult year.

The Real Easter Egg dropped by pandemic hit supermarkets

The UK's top supermarkets will not be stocking The Real Easter Egg in 2021. The start of the pandemic led to the supermarkets having a disastrous Easter 2020 as people stayed away from high streets. This year, supermarket buyers were told to cut brands. It means there will be fewer brands, including The Real Easter Egg, on their shelves this Easter. So if you are one of the 80,000 people who usually buy a Real Easter Egg from a supermarket or have friends who do then spread the word: buy online from MeaningfulChocolate.co.uk, traidcraftshop.co.uk, Embrace, Eden.co.uk or cpo.org.uk.

Watch Wintershall's The Passion of Jesus play this Good Friday

On Good Friday at 12:00 noon and 3:00 pm Wintershall's The Passion of Jesus play will be live streamed on Facebook.

The famous Wintershall Passion play has been performed live in Trafalgar Square in London every year on Good Friday since 2010. Sadly, the play that is normally performed live is unable to take place this year because of COVID-19 restrictions. However, the recording from 2019 will be made available on Facebook, to find out more visit www.wintershall.org.uk.
