The 6Ms

A few weeks ago I preached about living as followers of Jesus from Monday to Saturday. You might remember that I mentioned the 6Ms. Here is a reminder of what they are:

Models godly character. Maybe it's displaying self-control by keeping a cool head when a colleague or someone you are serving is provoking you. Maybe it's promoting peace by mediating an argument between two businesses. Maybe it's bringing joy by encouraging those around you.

Makes good work. Sometimes, our everyday tasks can seem a bit meaningless, or just means to an end. But 'making good work' means realising that everything we do is to and for the glory of God.

Ministers grace and love. This could be as simple as a timely cup of coffee, or taking ten minutes out to talk stuff over with someone who is struggling.

Moulds culture. Culture can be thought of as 'the way we do things round here'. Moulding it means making small changes to try to do things more Jesus' way.

Mouthpiece for truth and justice. This can be as simple as refusing to engage in gossip at the school gate, or speaking up for the colleague who has been overlooked.

Messenger of the gospel. This might be simply testifying to God's action in your life where it is appropriate to do so. It means having a desire to share something of Jesus with those around you.

Which of these resonates with you? Which already come naturally? Which would you like to grow into more fully?

The Collect for Bible Sunday (Common Worship)

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

The Collect for Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity (Book of Common Prayer)

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace; that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
