Sharing one bread and one cup

The decision to stop sharing the chalice was made for us in the pandemic, but local churches have been left to work out their own post-pandemic practice. Some churches continue to administer by intinction (dipping the bread in the wine), others have been sharing the chalice for some time.

We instinctively suspect that sharing a cup must increase the risk of cross-infection. This is not something we do in any other context! Research published in 1988 (admittedly some time ago) concluded, however, that: 'No episode of disease attributable to the shared communion cup has ever been reported. Currently available data do not provide any support for suggesting that the practice of sharing a common communion cup should be abandoned because it might spread infection.' It seems that the use of fortified wine in a silver cup means that the risk of cross-infection is reduced to a level that is essentially undetectable. There is greater risk standing in the queue to receive Communion.

As we review our practice, I recognise that sharing the chalice is something not everyone will feel comfortable with. So, for the next period at least, intinction will remain an option.

At our 9:30 am Family Communion, please receive Communion in St Mary's Chapel. If you attend other services, please sit at the front of the congregation and come to the communion rail at the first possible opportunity.

With thanks for your help,

Alan Garrow,
Vicar of St Peter's

may be found beside you on the way of the cross, which is the path of glory.

The Collect for the Sunday next before Easter

Almighty and everlasting God, who, of thy tender love towards mankind, hast sent thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, to take upon him our flesh, and to suffer death upon the cross, that all mankind should follow the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant, that we may both follow the example of his patience, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord.

Northern Ballet's Ugly Duckling returns to the stage

John Longstaff has worked on several of Northern Ballet's productions. The perfect opportunity for a child to enjoy live ballet, music and theatre, perhaps for the first time!

A Guide to the Trees in Valley Gardens by Jane Blayney and Simon Hill

An essential guide to the trees of Valley Gardens Harrogate has just been published. Opened in 1887 in celebration of Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee, the special character of this park is provided by the vast variety of trees; some are native to the British Isles while others are examples from more exotic places. Many of the trees in Valley Gardens are now well over 100 years old and this wonderful new guide describing thirty different species will help more of us to explore these trees and the wider Gardens with far greater insight than was previously possible. Available to buy from Waterstones or to order from jane.blayney23@gmail.com.

Two devotional digital resources for Holy Week

Holy Week is the name given to the week beginning on Palm Sunday (2nd April) and ending on Easter Sunday (9th April).

Walking the Way of the Cross is a podcast series written and recorded by Archbishop Stephen Cottrell, Dr Paula Gooder and Bishop Philip North, that will take people on the Holy Week journey by exploring and reflecting on the fifteen biblical Stations of the Cross. This form of devotion offers a particularly vivid way of following in the steps of Jesus on his way from Pilate's house to Calvary.

Women of Holy Week, written by Dr Paula Gooder, explores Holy Week through the eyes of nine female characters she imagines accompanying Jesus during these momentous days, with artwork by Ally Barrett. On Palm Sunday follow Miriam, a fish trader from Galilee, who has come to Jerusalem for Passover. It is available as a book or e-book to buy or a free podcast. Both resources can be found on the Lent, Holy Week and Easter page of the Church of England's website.

Refreshments are served after each of our Sunday morning services from the kitchen area at the front of Church. Please come and join us.

The Breakfast Club provides a free, hot breakfast from Monday to Saturday (8:15 – 8:45 am) for all those who are hungry or in need. A hot Sunday lunch is also served each week at 1:00 pm.

Hot food is available 4:30 – 4:50 pm on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Our mini Supermarket is on Thursdays 4:30 – 4:50 pm.
