Come and celebrate St Peter with us!

A Patronal Festival is the celebration of the patron saint of a church. Ours is St Peter the Apostle, whose saint's day falls on 29th June and as today is the nearest Sunday we are celebrating.

The readings at our services today tell just part of Peter's story:

In Matthew 16 v 13 – 19, when Jesus asks the disciples "Who do you say that I am?" Peter answers, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the Living God."

In Acts 12 v 1 – 12 we hear about Peter's escape from prison. And in Acts 9 v 32 – 43 two of Peter's miracles feature.

The anthem at Evensong is Tu es Petrus by Palestrina – Thou art Peter and on this rock, I will build my church. This afternoon there will be a garden party at the Vicarage with pizzas and a barbecue. There will be no Stepping Stones service as we hope everyone will come together and be at the party!

What happened to St Peter after the Ascension?

In Acts 2 v 14 - 39 Peter takes the lead in addressing the crowds gathered in Jerusalem for the feast of Pentecost. As the leader of the Christians there, he was targeted by Herod but miraculously freed from prison on the night before he was to stand trial. Peter then left Jerusalem and travelled to spread the Gospel. He was in Rome during the rule of the Roman Emperor Nero, who in 64 AD blamed the Christians for a disastrous fire in the city. Peter was taken prisoner and was sentenced to death by crucifixion. At his own request, he was crucified with his head downwards because he did not consider himself worthy to die in the same position as Jesus. It is thought his tomb lies under the high altar of St. Peter's Basilica in Rome.
