St Peter's Pastoral Care Team

St Peter's Pastoral Care Team (PCT) offers support and care during times of illness, hospitalisation, bereavement, loneliness and inability to access church. We visit people at home, do food shopping, deliver food during illness, keep in touch by telephone, link with relatives, offer essential transport and Home Communion.

Members of the team all undergo safeguarding training, and an introductory self-paced Pastoral Conversations course. This gives a basic introduction to pastoral care, good listening and pastoral conversation skills. If you would like to be better equipped to care for the vulnerable, and to reflect the love and care of Jesus, then this course is for you. It is available to all via the Leeds Diocese Digital Learning Platform.

As a member of the PCT, I have recently completed the Pastoral Assistant Training course, which is designed for those wishing to go deeper into pastoral conversations, safeguarding issues, understanding grief and loss, handling sensitive topics, understanding human and spiritual development and a basic understanding of dementia and mental health. It follows a 'flipped classroom approach', with something to read or watch before each session. There is a social café where participants can link with each other to discuss course topics and content; a good reflective learning tool. The tutors are excellent and very friendly - a wonderful opportunity to gain a greater insight into pastoral care. Do speak with me if you'd like to learn more.

Further information, including course materials, can be found at <https://learning.leeds.anglican.org/>. Why not set up your own learning profile today and give yourself access to this and lots of other courses?

Albania: a secret land revealed

Albania's tourism sector remained relatively underdeveloped until recently. The Adriatic coastline has some splendid beaches and major restorations of architectural and cultural monuments started to attract large numbers of visitors in the early 2000s.

Find out more about the rich history and culture of this fascinating country at the next meeting of St Peter's Evening Fellowship on Thursday 4th August, when Professor Joyce Hill will be giving an illustrated lecture at 7:30 pm in the Brostoff Hall. Contact Richard Bion (07966 073867 or richard.bion@talktalk.net) if you need to know more.

Harrogate Art after Loss exhibitions

A summer exhibition in Harrogate featuring works of art that have been created in response to grief will run throughout August at four venues in the town – Horticap; Henshaws Arts and Crafts Centre; Crimple Hall and Harrogate Library, with different works on display at each location.

The artists, writers and photographers whose work will be on display include Shaeron Caton Rose (pictured right), a practising printmaker and installation artist, who has curated two exhibitions at St Peter's recently. There will also be contributions from Mindful Memorials and Yorkshire charity The Swan Song Project. The exhibitions open on 1st August.

A new recruit learns the ropes!

Here is Tak-Ming Lee having his first bellringing lesson with Hannah Beck. His family is one of several new St Peter's families who emigrated from Hong Kong last Summer. Tak-Ming has just completed Year 6 at St Peter's CE School and will start at St Aidan's CE High School in September.
