Hope rooted in relationship

Things will get better! On what basis can we have this kind of confidence? What makes the difference between a general, sunny optimism and a deep, resilient hope?

The difference is relationship. If we are part of a universe fashioned by God, part of a story in which God's loving purpose has the final word, and people whom God has called into covenant relationship – a covenant relationship sealed by the events of Holy Week and Easter – then, even when we live through darkness, loss and lament, we have a basis for a deep and resilient hope. Better than just being able to say, 'things will get better', we can say, 'we are treasured by a God who gave himself on the cross and whose loving purposes can never be defeated.' So 'Happy Easter!' means, in fact, 'rejoice in your relationship-rooted hope'.

Alan Garrow, Vicar of St Peter's Church

Dare we hope? We dare

Andrew Ripley OBE was an English rugby union international, who represented England from 1972 to 1976, and the British Lions on their unbeaten 1975 tour of South Africa. An all-round athlete, and a qualified yachtsman, he won the BBC's Superstars television series in 1980. In 2005 he was diagnosed with advanced prostate cancer. He wrote this poem in the foreword to his book whilst in remission:

Dare we hope? We dare.

Can we hope? We can.

Should we hope? We must.

We must, because to do otherwise is to waste the most precious of gifts, given so freely by God to all of us.

So when we do die, it will be with hope and it will be easy and our hearts will not be broken.

Andy Ripley, 10th June 2007, Athlone Friary

Sadly, the cancer returned, and Andy Ripley died on 17th June 2010, aged 62.

Thank you to Bryn Heapy for sending this in for inclusion in the Weekly News.

Volunteers Needed for Christian Aid Week

Christian Aid Week this year runs from 10th – 16th May and we are looking for volunteers to help raise vital funds for the charity.

Of course, we are unable to carry out the usual house-to-house collections - from which the main source of Christian Aid's annual income is derived. However, this year we are organising a delivery only collection to as many houses as possible in the town. On each envelope, there will be a label asking that any donations the householder wishes to make should be returned to a central point in town, so there's no need for the volunteers to knock or collect.

We are looking for volunteers to distribute these delivery-only envelopes in a street of your choice. Can you help us?

This year Christian Aid is seeking to stand together against the climate crisis. People living in poverty are on the frontline of climate chaos. They are losing food, water, homes and family. Every day, people walk further, dig deeper and build stronger to survive. Unrelenting. Determined. They battle the worst of a climate crisis they did not create. Now they face a double threat, as Coronavirus threatens lives and livelihoods like never before.

Will you help support our brothers and sisters in so much need? If so, please contact Judith Simpson by email judiannesimpson@btinternet.com or phone 01423 564842. Thank you!

Recycle your empty medicine blister packets!

Every year empty medicine blister packets end up in landfills across the UK. Superdrug are working to put an end to this needless loss of resources with their Medicine Packet Recycling Programme. Just collect your empty medicine blister packets, drop them off at the Superdrug pharmacy in Cambridge Road and they will be sent to TerraCycle to be recycled. The money raised will be donated to Marie Curie. Please do not include any unused, unopened or out-of-date medicines; bottles, inhalers, sprays; or cardboard boxes.

to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might, now and in all eternity.

Harrogate School of Theology & Mission

The Revd Ian Parkinson, Leadership Development Specialist at Church Pastoral Aid Society (CPAS), speaks on 'For equipping of the saints: the gift of Christian leadership'

Effectiveness in leadership is not measured so much by what any leader achieves but rather by whom they raise up and equip for service. The development and empowering of others certainly seems to have been a top priority for Jesus and those who followed after him. With particular reference to his example, in this session we will unpack the NT leadership emphasis on growing others in discipleship and ministry and explore what this might mean for us today. This online live lecture via Zoom is on Saturday 24th April from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm. For this event there is a charge of £5 and places must be booked in advance. Visit hstm.org.uk for full details.

Leeds Learning Platform 'Mental Wellbeing': 7:00 – 8:30 pm on 21st April

To book a place, please email childrenyouth@leeds.anglican.org.
