An update on St Peter's Home Groups

Last August I wrote a front page article setting out our Church's desire to start more Home Groups. I wanted to inspire people to come together, discussing and exploring scripture while also supporting and walking alongside one another pastorally. We have moved forward from one or two groups to five groups which is an amazing start, and I am encouraged by that growth, but it is only a start.

Home Groups are fundamental to the growing life of the Church and to our Christian lives. We are inspired by scripture to meet, study, share and pray together, which is why joining a Home Group is so important to our personal development.

My desire is to see more people involved in Home Groups, so that more of us are known, encouraged, and enabled - helping everyone to engage with a whole life commitment to Jesus, not just on Sundays.

To this end, with Lent fast approaching, we are promoting the 'Fruitfulness on the Frontline' study series to our homegroups. This course helps us explore our everyday context, realising that it's significant to God and full of people who matter to God. The course lets us see how God might have been working in and through us on our frontlines. And helps us imagine what more God might want us to do there.

We have a brand new Home Group starting this coming Thursday 9th February, full details are overleaf.

Chris Clayton, Associate Vicar at St Peter's

Join us in our World Day of Prayer Service

World Day of Prayer is an international inter-church organisation which enables us to hear the thoughts of women from all parts of the world, their hopes, concerns and prayers.

The preparation for the day is vast. An international committee is based in New York and there are national committees from each participating country. Regional conferences meet to consider the service and then local groups make their plans.

Our sisters in Taiwan are sending us blessings with the service they have prepared for World Day of Prayer 2023. Taiwan is an island rich in natural resources and culturally diverse. The women of Taiwan share the issues faced geographically, politically and socially and also their hopes for the future.

Let us join with them at West Park URC at 2:00 pm on Friday 3rd March, as we give thanks for the beautiful island and people of Taiwan and encourage one another in our faith just as Apostle Paul did in his letters.

St Peter's Afternoon Fellowship

St Peter's Afternoon Fellowship meets on the first Monday of the month at Gillian Taylor's home. There is usually a speaker, or sometimes an outing, and always a delicious afternoon tea. Harry Satloka, from Free Walking Tour Harrogate, is the speaker tomorrow Monday 6th February, from 2:00 – 4:00 pm. Please call Gillian on 01423 500482 if you would like to come.

Say it with Flowers

Why not mark a special occasion, such as an anniversary or a birthday, by making a donation towards the flowers in Church? St Peter's Flower Team will make an arrangement on the pedestal to the right of the altar, and you will also receive a mention in the Weekly News. Please speak to Sue Heapy for further details (07540 355 305).

'My life stopped' – why bereavement ministry is vital

The Revd Canon Yvonne Richmond Tulloch was Canon for Mission at Coventry Cathedral when she was widowed suddenly in 2008, causing her 'life to go into freefall'. Her experience of grief led to her passion for helping other bereaved people find support. She established the charity AtaLoss, which offers a bereavement signposting website, and went on to help run The Bereavement Journey – a course which helps equip those grieving to come terms with loss.

According to the Revd Tulloch, we don't get over grief, we learn how to live with it – but people need to be helped in this.

"Grief can affect every aspect of a person's life – not just emotional well-being, but physical and mental health," she explained, "Bereavement is one of the most stressful times in life, but for many people, it's devastating. Those grieving are so often left feeling isolated, floundering, and confused. People don't know what to say to bereaved people, so they steer clear of them – or they assume when they see them that they're coping well, when they've just managed to pull themselves together or are still feeling numb in the early stages."

For anyone bereaved during Covid restrictions, all the usual problems were exacerbated.

This was the case for Ounissa Benali, whose mother died during the pandemic.

"When my mum went into hospital, it was a nightmare: I couldn't see her or visit her – I went from being with her 24/7 during lockdown to not being able to see her at all and having to isolate," she explained. "When my mum passed away, I really struggled. I was crying all the time; it was so difficult. I didn't know where to turn or what to do. My life stopped. I felt like an alien everywhere, and like nothing mattered. I was praying to find something that could help me. I did not know then that The Bereavement Journey course was something that was even available."

She first heard about the course - a series of films and facilitated discussion groups - after hearing about it through a friend at church. "The Bereavement Journey was one of the best things I have done in my life, it brought me so much peace – although the pain was still there, I now had something I could fall back on. I was reminded that even Jesus wept. During such a horrible time in my life, it brought me closer to God."

Event : The Bereavement Journey

Dates : Monday 20th February 2023 (for 6 weeks)

Time : 7:30 – 9:45 pm @ St Marks Church, Leeds Road

please book by 8th Feb.

(pastoralcare@smch.org.uk / 01423 544528).

The Bereavement Journey is for anyone who has been bereaved at any time.

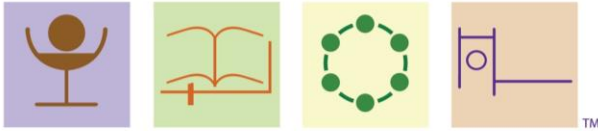

The course is a tried and tested way to help anyone who has been bereaved. Each week comprises two films which help guide people through the most common aspects of grief, each followed by an opportunity for discussion in a small group, and includes refreshments. Session 6 is optional and offers a Christian perspective to commonly asked faith questions in bereavement.
