My Role as Parish Safeguarding Officer

It is a year since I took on the role of Parish Safeguarding Officer (PSO), reluctantly, it has to be said. I said yes, because the excellent work being done by the Clergy and volunteers at St Peter's is so valuable to the community and the people who need our support, that it must thrive and, if possible, expand its scope. The lack of a PSO could put that at risk.

My task is to find ways to make progress through the Diocesan training and procedures to enable the leaders of the various groups in Church to continue doing what they do so well, but within the rules and requirements of the Safeguarding Policy. This ensures that both participants and leaders are safe, but that the children still get opportunities to build confidence and resilience which will help to keep them safe in future.

I can't sing, lead worship or a prayer group, but instead of getting frustrated with the rules and regulations, I have come to see that doing the training, reading the endless paperwork, calmly and steadily, is my way to contribute to the worship and life of our Church. At the same time, I have the help of a great support team and contact with wonderful, inspiring people in Church, who are generally pleased to see me.

So, I am glad I said yes, but now we must consolidate Safeguarding within all the groups in the Church in line with the Safeguarding Action Plan, so that we can meet the Diocesan requirements, withstand external examination, be able to adapt to new requirements and make the PSO role attractive to anyone. I hope you will all join this effort whenever and however you can, as part of your contribution to the well-being of everyone in our Church family.

Wendy Lewis, Parish Safeguarding Officer

Food supplied, sold or provided at charity or community events, such as fundraisers, must comply with food laws. So that those with food intolerances or allergies can make safe choices we ask that cakes are brought in a clean container with a list of ingredients attached. Thank you.

The Imposition of the Ashes

On Ash Wednesday, Roman Catholic, Anglican and some other churches hold special services at which worshippers are marked on the forehead with a cross of ashes. This service draws on the ancient Biblical traditions of covering one's head with ashes, wearing sackcloth and fasting as signs of repentance. As the minister makes the sign of the cross on each person's forehead these words are said:

Remember you are dust and unto dust you shall return.

Turn away from sin and be faithful to Christ

Please come to the Communion Service with the Imposition of the Ashes at 11:00 am on Ash Wednesday, 18th February, here at St Peter's as the season of Lent begins.

A new member of the Clergy Team

We are glad to announce that The Revd Phyllis Sopp, has now received her Permission to Officiate in the Diocese of Leeds. This allows her to officiate at St Peter's services. Phyl, and her husband Dave, moved from Maidenhead to Harrogate in March last year. Phyl was ordained in September 2020 as a self-supporting minister having trained on the Oxford local ministry pathway. She carried out her ministry alongside her career as a nurse practitioner in a local GP practice. She retired last year after a 45-year nursing career prior to her move to Harrogate.

The Breakfast Club provides a free, hot breakfast every morning from Monday to Saturday (8:15 – 8:45 am) for all those who are hungry or in need.

Our mini-supermarket is on Thursdays from 4:20 – 4:40 pm – an opportunity to stock up on tinned, preserved and dried food and toiletries.

Today is Racial Justice Sunday: Love your neighbour is the theme

Racial Justice Sunday has been observed since 1995, originally established in response to the racist murder of Stephen Lawrence. It represents a shared commitment across churches to confront racial injustice and work towards healing, equality, and transformed community life.

The 2026 theme, Love your neighbour, calls us to embody Christ's love in practical and courageous ways. Loving our neighbour means affirming the full humanity of every person, challenging harmful structures, and building communities where all can flourish.

God of our past, present and future, as we pray for an end to suffering caused by racism, lead us this day to walk with one another, pray with one another and work together, so that we create a future based on justice and healing, where all can fulfil the hope you have for all peoples.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
